Sharmina Nasrin Launches Campaign for Ward 20, Scarborough Southwest

June 8, 2026 · Scarborough, ON

Today, policy professional and Scarborough Southwest resident Sharmina Nasrin officially launched her campaign to become City Councillor for Ward 20. Backed by local volunteers and residents, Nasrin outlined a platform focused on protecting tenants, safer streets and better transit, cleaner neighbourhoods, and more opportunities for families and youth.

"I know this community. I know how the system works. I am running so Scarborough Southwest gets the attention, service, and respect it deserves. Because Scarborough Matters," said Nasrin at her campaign launch.

Nasrin is a Bangladeshi Canadian immigrant, mother and former public servant who has lived in Scarborough Southwest for nearly a decade. Her background in public administration and policy analysis informs a campaign centred on practical, deliverable progress for Ward 20 residents.

Residents can learn more, volunteer or request a lawn sign at sharminanasrin.ca. Election Day is October 26, 2026.
